HELLO

I lived in Manhattan till a disabling accident and the terrible events that ensued.

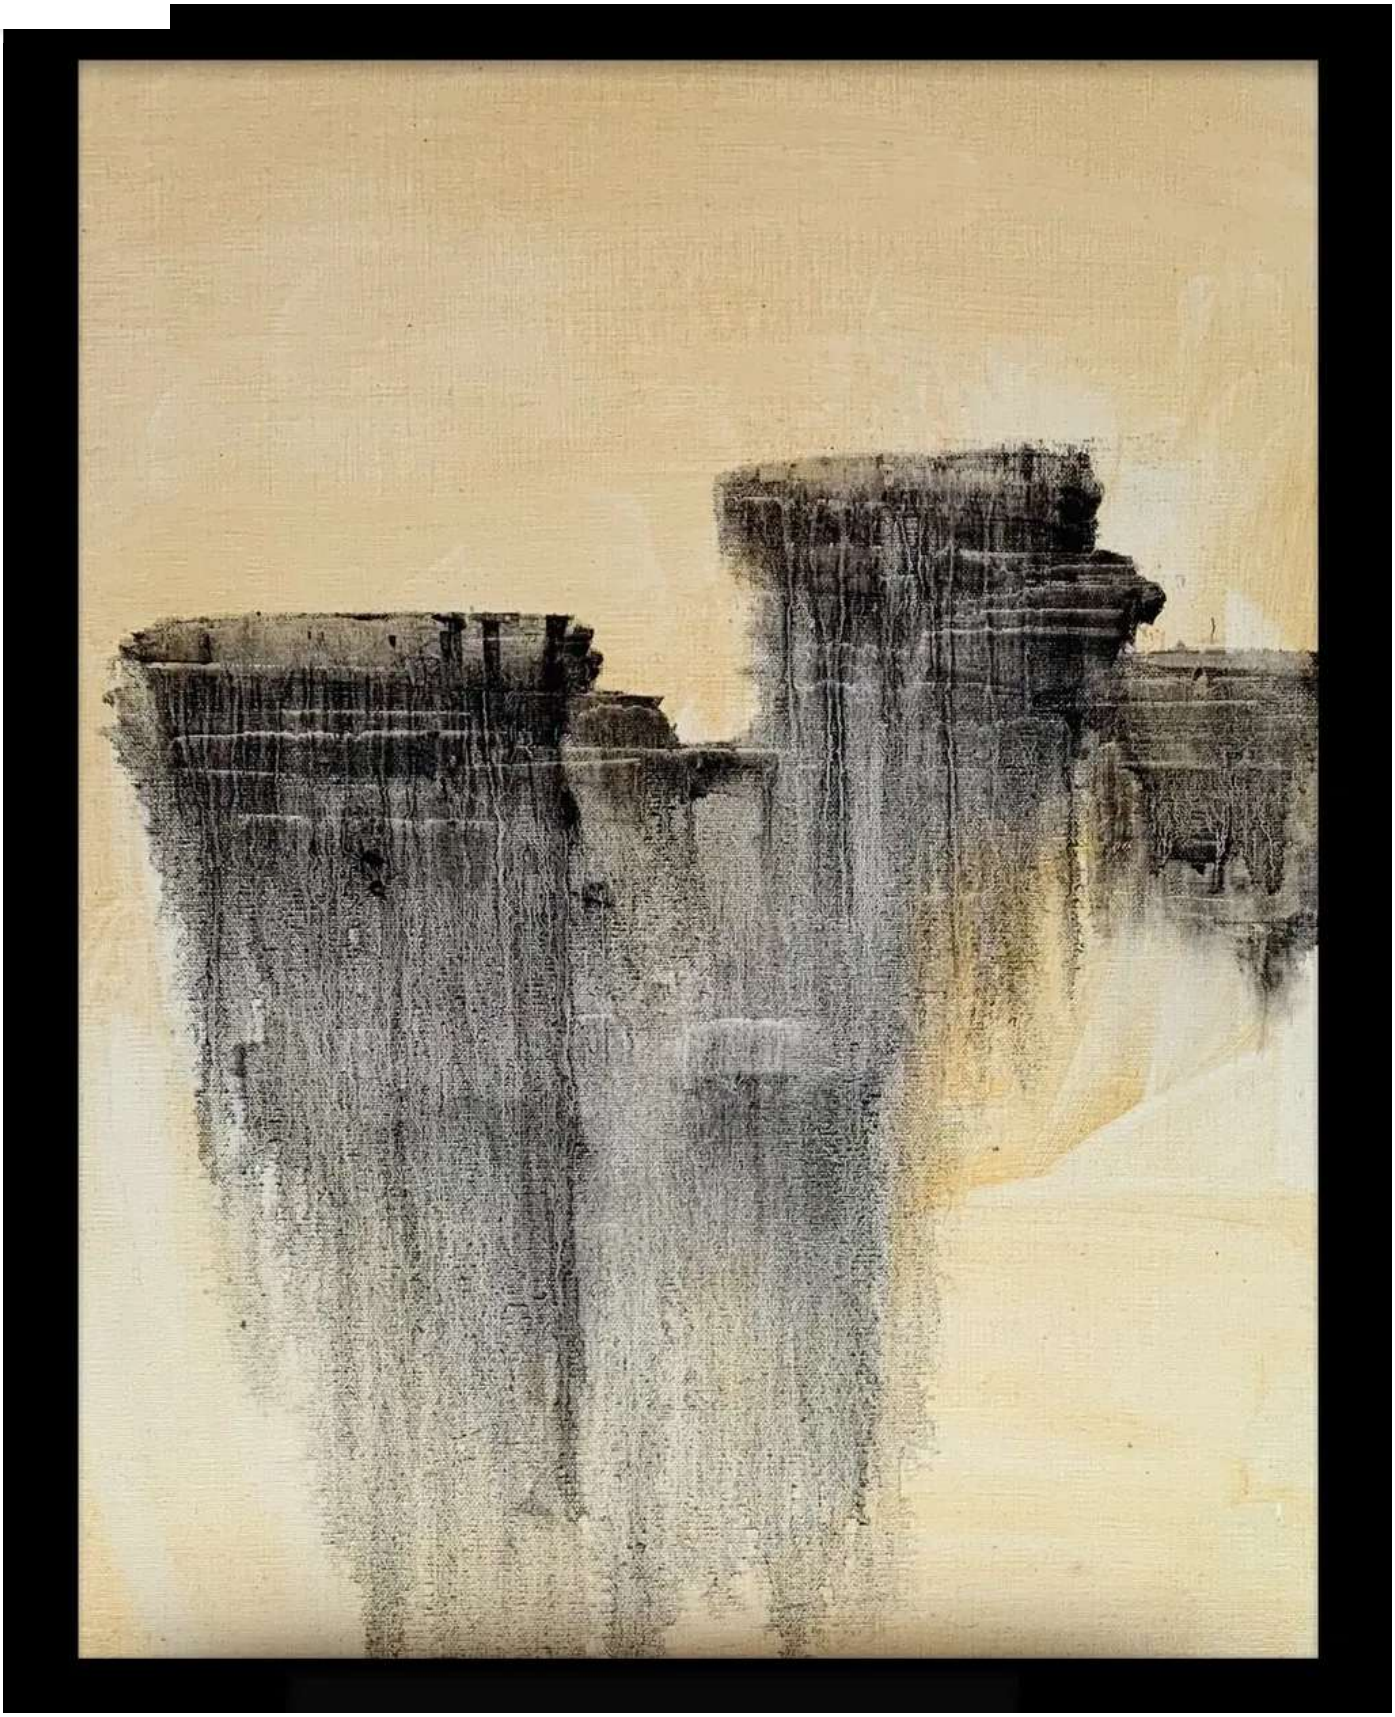

In convalescence I began painting, it brought me great solace, inner strength and a sense of awareness.

My canvases had turned into my journal. I now share some pages, I wish it brings you, some Love, some Hope, some Light in the future.

"I concede I'm waiting for my moment of epiphany when in the blink of an eye, my life will make perfect sense. That I only I, am that one insignificant grain of sand without which the oceans wouldn't ripple towards the shores thus..
If you could tell me that, I know I'd want for nothing more."

"It seemed not to matter how firmly I held on to the sand in my fist, it still sifted away, anyway..
I sat back on my beach chair and mused, The plan is to let everything go and see what stays" sRai
